

Dhoni's Dream Bat

The crowd cheered loudly as Dhoni lifted his bat, a triumphant smile on his face! He had just scored many important runs in a long, challenging game, making his team proud. Every single run was a step closer to victory, showing everyone how hard he worked and how much he loved playing for his country.

But Dhoni dreamt of an even bigger prize, a shiny World Cup for all of India! Years later, in the most exciting final match, he stood ready with his bat. With a powerful swing, the ball flew high, high, high into the night sky, winning the World Cup with an amazing six and making everyone jump for joy!
